

I have noticed a decline in telemarketing calls since the implementation of the "no call" list. I renewed my status when it came due this January and would not want to be denied the opportunity to avoid these calls. Please listen to the public. Thank you.